FAITH H SATRYA

faithsatrya17@gmail.com or faithsatrya@g.ucla.edu | (858) 999-4082 | linkedin.com/in/faithsatrya

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

UCLA senior pursuing a degree in Statistics and Data Science with a strong analytical background and a keen interest in finance. Experienced in living overseas, bringing a global perspective and adaptability to new challenges.

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, LOS ANGELES

Bachelor of Science, Statistics and Data Science Expected June 2025

- Expected GPA: 3.3
- Relevant coursework: Statistical Models for Finance (IP), Practice of Statistical Consulting (IP), Linear Models, Introduction to Data Analysis Regression, Introduction to Computation and Optimisation for Statistics

SAN DIEGO MESA COLLEGE

Associates Degree of Arts, Mathematics and Pre-Engineering – Computer Science June 2023

- GPA: 3.8, Graduated with High Honors
- Relevant coursework: Calculus, Introduction to Microeconomics, Introduction to Macroeconomics

RELEVANT PROJECTS AND EXPERIENCE

DataFest, UCLA (2024) – Best Visualisation Award

- Investigated large and complex data sets, identifying critical problems and contexts to be further analysed.
- Collaborated with team in applying variable and model selection techniques, increasing data analysis efficiency.
- Presented compelling visualisations of findings and various data-driven solutions to the identified problems.

Department of Behavioural Sciences, San Diego Mesa College

Author, Literature Review (2023)

- Reviewed gender differences in alcohol consumption and distress symptoms that accompany alcohol use disorder, synthesising existing research to inform more effective treatment methods.
- Identified weaknesses in alcohol use disorder treatments, drawing conclusions to improve treatment strategies.

Honors Project (2023)

- Analysed data collected from a sample of over 400 participants to be used in a study with SPSS, highlighting gender differences in anxiety associated with alcohol consumption.

CLUBS AND ORGANISATIONS

Bruin Sport Analytics – Tennis Consulting, UCLA April 2024 – present

- Developed detailed data sets representing every shot type and placement for each point played in a match.
- Transformed raw data into actionable insights using various visualisation methods, delivering strategic insights to UCLA Division I tennis athletes in order to enhance performance and success in competitive matches.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Self-employed Tennis Instructor, San Diego & Los Angeles, California August 2021 – present

- Provided private and group lessons, developing personalised lesson plans to enhance skill development.

University City Racquet Club, San Diego, California August 2022 – June 2023

Administration and Tennis Instructor

- Facilitated junior and adult clinics, contributing to community physical and social engagement.
- Manage membership, clinic, and court payments, accounting for 70% of the facility's revenue.

Carmel Valley Tennis Club, San Diego, California September 2021 – June 2022

Pro-shop employee and part-time tennis instructor

- Assisted customers with racquet services and organised junior clinics for children aged 4 – 12.

SKILLS AND BACKGROUND

- Proficient in Microsoft Office 365 (Word, Excel, PowerPoint)
- Programming languages: R, Java, C++
- Fluent in English and Indonesian; basic proficiency in Mandarin Chinese and German.

HONORS AND AWARDS

- DataFest Best Visualisation Award (2024) – awarded for presenting impactful data insights through visualisations.
- Harry West Scholarship (2023) – honoured for high academic performance amid competing as an student-athlete.
- Dean's Honor List (2021, 2022, 2023) – recognised for maintaining full-time enrolment with a GPA above 3.5.
- ITA Scholar Athlete (2022, 2023) – thrived academically, maintaining a GPA above 3.5 while balancing athletics.